

Schizo-affective Disorder

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. Characterized by symptoms of schizophrenia, bi-polar, and major depressive disorder | A. Causes |
| 2. Characterized by symptoms related to hallucinations and delusions | B. Co-occurring substance use |
| 3. Often developing the illness at a younger age | C. Treatment |
| 4. Integrated treatment is needed when there is | D. Men |
| 5. People can experience different symptoms depending on the | E. Disorganized thinking |
| 6. A person may switch very quickly from on topic to another or provide unrelated answers | F. Difficult |
| 7. Feelings of sadness, emptiness, feelings of worthlessness | G. Schizophrenia |
| 8. Feelings of euphoria, racing thoughts, and increased risky behavior | H. Manic behavior |
| 9. Genetics, imbalanced brain chemistry, stress, drug use | I. Depressed mood |
| 10. Schizo-affective disorder can be ____ to diagnose because of the symptoms related to schizophrenia and a mood disorder | J. Co-occurring disorders |
| 11. Medications, psychotherapy, and self management strategies are forms of ____ | K. Schizo-affective |
| 12. PTSD, ADHD, and substance abuse are ____ disorders | L. Mood disorder |