

Science Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. an outer covering in plant cells that gives them a rigid shape

4. a green pigment in a plant that turns a leaf green

10. a cell part that controls the cells activities

14. an animal without a backbone

15. a kingdom with multi-cellular producers

16. a kingdom with multi-cellular consumers

17. the food making process that plants go through

18. a structure in plant cells that holds chlorophyll

Down

2. the basic unit of structure for living things

3. plants without vascular tubes or tissues

5. plants with tubes and tissues to carry food and water

6. a thin layer that surrounds all cells

7. cell part(s) that stores food and nutrients

8. An animal with a backbone

9. a jelly like substance that holds a cell together

11. a kingdom with one celled organisms without a nucleus

12. a plant like kingdom with spores

13. a kingdom of one celled organisms with a nucleus