

Science Crossword puzzle

Across

- 2. The instrument that measures temperature.
- 6. A prefix to cloud-type names for clouds that are at high altitudes and composed of ice crystals.
- 8. A cloud on the ground that reduces visibility
- 9. Water that forms on objects close to the ground when its temperature falls below the dew point of the surface air.
- 11. A tornado occurring over water.

- 14. The shaking or movement of a portion of the Earth's surface.
- 15. A water substance in the solid phase

Down

- 1. A line connecting equal points of pressure
- 3. The amount of water vapor in the air.
- 4. The position of the Earth's surface east or west of the Greenwich meridian.
- 5. A prefix to cloud-type names for clouds generally found low in the atmosphere.

- 7. When a widespread layer of clouds covers all of the sky. There may be thin or bright spots in the cloud layer, but no openings.
- 10. The third planet from the sun and is our home.
- 12. The mixture of gases, which form the atmosphere of the Earth
- 13. A forecast issued by the National Weather Service indicating that conditions are favorable for a particular weather hazard.