

Science Homework:

Across

4. When a substance turns from a solid to a gas.
5. This process is when liquid turns to solid.
7. When a substance changes its form to something else.
8. This is the part of the water cycle that makes clouds.
9. This process is when solid turns to liquid.

10. When a liquid turns into a gas.

Down

1. This is when a substance consists of a singular type of particle.
2. When a substance consists of more than one type of particle.
3. The term for the three different forms a substance can be.
6. This is used to find the difference between pure and impure liquid.