

Science Menu Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 3. The study of how and why diseases occur
- 5. The common unit to living things
- 9. A gel-like substance in petri dishes
- 12. Provides cell with energy
- 13. Prokaryotic, one-celled organisms

14. An example of this is muscle

15. The symptoms of the disease are a red itchy rash, red bumps, and blisters

Down

1. The variable that is being measured during a scientific experiment

2. A disease that spreads very readily from person to person

4. Animals, plants, and protists are all examples

6. When something gets bigger

7. To be wiped out

8. A storage area for water and nutrients

10. Control center of cell

11. can grow only while inside another cell