

Name: _____

Science Reading log

Across

- gives off rays of energy or particles, unstable by breaking apart certain elements
- a distinct compound or substance, especially one which has been artificially prepared or purified.
- when an element or substance is safe it is a?.... element
- elements are separated into what?
- what symbol is used for Helium?
- how many elements are liquid? (q6)

- when someone has been exposed to radiation for over 24 hours they may get what?
- Used to make things float (He)
- used for explosives -element (mixed with other items)
- what is the name of element 11?

21. what is used to count radioactivity in elements?

Down

- what elements are most commonly found in
- the name used for all of the elements grouped on a chart

- the numbers of the elements is based on...?
- a Gas element code Cl
- what we breathe
- A metal, used in everyday things (Sn)
- a poisonous chemical that burns when exposed to air
- one of two liquid elements (Hg)
- The word for a substance as it came, not made from others, cannot be broken down
- used to contain radioactive elements safely