

Science Terms

Across

4. A situation that presents a threat to people
 5. Results that have already been collected by another person
 8. Shows the independent vs dependent variables
 11. The maximum and minimum values of a variable
 16. Magazine which publishes science research for others to read
 17. Information from an observation or experiment that supports an idea
 18. What you think will happen in an experiment

20. A statement that says something is true

21. Shows the proportions or percentages that make up a whole
 22. How likely something is to be harmful

Down

1. Displays the value of categories
 2. When repeat readings are close together
 3. A person or organisation that pays for scientific research
 6. A factor that can be changed, measured and controlled
 7. The checking of research by another scientist

9. Information gathered by your senses

10. A relationship between variables that decrease as the other increases

12. Shows the relationship between two continuous variables

13. Something good or helpful

14. Data average calculated by dividing the number of values by their sum

15. An explanation you can test which includes a reason and a science idea

19. When an experimenter's view affects the outcome