

Name: _____

Science Vocab Test

Across

- 2. Anything that has volume and mass.
- 7. Elements that are dull, brittle and not good conductors.
- 8. Elements that have properties of both metals and non-metals.
- 10. Pure substance that can't be broken down into different substances.
- 12. Solid, malleable, and good conductors of heat and electricity.

- 14. How shiny a substance looks.

15. What you can observe without changing the matter itself.

Down

- 1. 1 or 2 letters representing a chemical element.
- 3. The ability of a substance to be pounded into thin sheets.
- 4. The amount of space something takes up.
- 5. Formed when two or more elements combine chemically.

6. Measurement of the amount of matter in an object.

9. Physical property of matter. The amount of matter in a given space.

11. When two or more substances combine physically but not chemically.

13. International System of Units

Word Bank

METALS	ELEMENT	MASS	COMPOUND
MATTER	NONMETALS	CHEMICAL SYMBOL	SI UNITS
PHYSICAL PROPERTIES	VOLUME	METALLOIDS	LUSTER
MIXTURE	MALLEABILITY	DENSITY	