

Name: _____

Date: _____

Science Vocabulary: Set 9

Across

1. The natural process by which physical and mental qualities are passed from a parent to a child
 4. Characteristics that blend in with the surrounding environment and increase chances of survival
 5. Stage of complete metamorphosis during which the insect eats and grows and does not resemble the adult
 13. _____ Physical _____: a physical characteristic that an organism is born with that is passed to the organism from its parents
 14. An internal or external characteristic or feature of an organism
 15. _____ Physical Trait: a trait that one is not born with but that is gained due to lifestyle or environment
 16. A fully grown organism

17. The first stage in a life cycle

18. _____ Metamorphosis: type of development consisting of four distinct stages

19. _____ Metamorphosis: type of development consisting of three stages

Down

2. The seasonal movement of animals from one place to another
 3. Stage of complete metamorphosis during which the organism seems to be at rest and new body parts are forming (the changing stage)
 6. A natural or innate impulse or tendency
 7. When an animal becomes still in an enclosed space and reduces bodily functions to save energy

8. _____ Behavior:

behavior that an organism is born with that is passed to the organism from its parents

9. _____ Behavior: animal behavior that develops from observation or instruction

10. The resemblance of an organism to another organism or to its surroundings that give it a better chance of survival

11. Stage of incomplete metamorphosis during which an insect eats and grows and resembles a smaller version of the adult

12. The stages of sequence of events through which an organism grows, reproduces, and dies