

Name: _____

Date: _____

Science Vocabulary Terms

Across

2. Solid (ice), Liquid (water), Gas (vapor)

6. step by step directions

8. ability to make a measurement that is as close to the actual value

10. able to see through

11. the transfer of thermal energy as matter moves

13. a series of controlled step which can be repeated to answer a question

14. information often in the form of facts obtained from experiments

15. the ability to consistently repeat a measurement

16. a set of observations that make you believe that something is true

Down

1. able to see through, but not clearly

3. the transfer of heat that occurs when one thing touches another

4. unable to see through

5. a standard in which change is measured

7. energy that is sent out in waves

9. process of making sense of numerical information in order to draw conclusions

12. measurable object, condition, or event which can be changed