

Name: _____

Science Vocabulary

Across

2. group of interdependent organisms inhabiting the same region and interacting with each other

4. organisms that break eat living producers and or other consumers food

6. processes by which carbon compound are interconverted in the environment

7. changes in physical structure, function or behavior that allow an organism or species to survive and reproduce

9. living factors in the environment

10. organisms that break down wastes and dead organisms and return raw materials to the environment

Down

1. diagram that compares energy used by producers, primary consumers and other trophic levels

3. group of ecosystems with simialar climates

5. biological community of interacting organisms and thier physical enviroment

8. non-living part of the enviroment, including water, rocks,light and temperature