

Science crossword

Across

- 2. Turning materials that otherwise would become waste into valuable resources
- 6. A point or value which a sequence, function, or sum of a series can be made to approach progressively, until they are as close to it as desired (plural)
- 8. Source of all energy
- 10. The first mammal ever cloned

11. A group of organisms (plants or animals) of the same species living and reproducing in a given area

13. Responsible management and care of the environment.

14. A physical or behavioral characteristic that has evolved over time to help a species survive in the environment where it lives.

Down

1. The force that resists the movement of one surface over another

3. Controls what goes in and out of the cell

4. The layers of air around the Earth.

5. An important factor that affects the suitability of any habitat for the organisms that live there

7. Like the brain, it controls all the cell's activities.

9. Has a definite shape and volume

12. A way of reproduction in which the young comes from a single parent and is exactly the same as that parent only.