

Science vocabulary

Across

- 3. To pull toward one another, as opposite poles of two magnets pull towards
- 4. To push away, as similar poles of two magnets
- 6. Battery
- 7. A push or pull
- 13. one of the two ends of a magnet where the force is the strongest
- 15. A way for electricity to flow

16. Incomplete circuit that doesn't allow the flow of electricity

17. A form of energy

18. Part of a circuit that receives energy

Down

- 1. Something that provides electricity
- 2. A property of certain kinds of materials that causes them to attract to iron or steel

5. Magnetism produced by an electric current

8. The lines of force surrounding a magnet that is strongest at the poles

9. A circuit that allows the flow of electricity

10. An item that allows electricity to move through it

11. A base for a circuit

12. An item that doesn't allow electricity to move through it

14. An object that sticks to iron

Word Bank

- pole
- Magnet
- Electricity source
- Closed circuit
- Circuit base
- Repel

- Electricity
- Open circuit
- Circuit
- Attract
- Electricity receiver
- Conductor

- Insulator
- Magnetism
- Dcell
- Force
- Electromagnetism
- Magnetic field