

Security 1

Across

4. The term for any type of offensive manoeuvre by anonymous individuals or groups that targets computer systems, by various means to either steal, alter, or destroy a specified target.

5. Term for when a website or computer system is subjected to or threatened with repeated denial of service attacks by malicious hackers unless payment is received.

6. Identity theft, extortion, altering, or destroying data are forms of computer _____

10. Individual who threatens and intimidates others using computer technology.

11. A _____ is designed to perform legitimate tasks but it also performs unknown and unwanted activity.

Down

1. This umbrella term for a variety of illegal acts that are committed while using computer resources

2. _____ utilizes techniques of defending and attacking information and computer networks that inhabit cyberspace.

3. is a form of harassment using electronic forms of contact, has become increasingly common, especially among teenagers, can include posting rumors about a person.

7. A _____ is a self-replicating program that can attach itself to another program or file in order to reproduce.

8. These types of emails may contain links to other websites that are affected by malware. Or, they may contain links to fake online banking used to steal private account information.

9. A _____ does not need another file or program to copy itself; it is a self-sustaining running program. They replicate over a network using protocols.