

Sed, sid, sess = to sit, settle

Across

2. accustomed to sit or rest a great deal or to take little exercise

5. a drug taken for its calming or sleep-inducing effect

6. to put (a person) under sedation

8. an enclosed automobile body having two or four doors and seating four or more persons on two full-width seats

9. a person who makes assessments, especially for purposes of taxation

10. the matter that settles to the bottom of a liquid

Down

1. an officer appointed or elected to preside over an organized body of persons

3. to dwell permanently or for a considerable time

4. the sitting together of a court, council, legislature, or the like, for conference or the transaction of business

7. the place, especially the house, in which a person lives or resides