

Seizures (no blanks with two words)

Across

3. Seizure associated with a sudden spike in temperature as high as 102 - 104 degree F.

5. _____ phase is the first phase of a tonic-clonic seizure.

6. Prolonged seizure activity lasting 30 minutes or longer, or continuous seizure activity in which the client does not enter the postictal phase.

7. An _____ is used to record electrical activity and can identify the origin of seizure activity.

9. _____ seizures involve one area of the brain.

10. A _____ diet can be used to promote body use of fat instead of glucose for energy which can decrease seizure frequency.

Down

1. _____ seizures involve the entire brain.

2. A procedure to remove one hemisphere of the brain is called _____.

4. Most common type of seizure.

8. _____ refers to an extreme form of hypoxia.