

Name: _____ Date: _____

Seniors Ch. 16 Part two vocab focus

- |  |                         |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1. Elevation that occurs when a section is lifted over 0 degrees   | A. Growth pattern       |
| 2. Direction which hair grows from the scalp also known as a "cow-lick "   | B. Graduation           |
| 3. Also known as the guide   | C. Hairline             |
| 4. Hair that grows at the outermost perimeter along the face.  | D. Interior guideline   |
| 5. Also known as the head shape; the shape of the head   | E. Occipital bone       |
| 6. Inner or internal part.   | F. Layers               |
| 7. Guideline that is inside the haircut rather than on the perimeter   | G. Perimeter            |
| 8. Cuttings hair with elevation or over direction using a 90 degree or higher  | H. Pivoting             |
| 9. Creates movement and volume in hair by releasing weight   | I. Head form            |
| 10. Thin continuous mark used as a guide, can be straight, curved or diagonal  | J. Line                 |
| 11. Haircut which hair is cut at a 90 degree elevation and then over directed to maintain length and weight at the perimeter | K. Notching             |
| 12. Back part of the neck  | L. Overdirection        |
| 13. A version of point cutting   | M. Nape                 |
| 14. Bone that protrudes at the base of the skull   | N. Guideline            |
| 15. Combing hair away from it's natural falling position example 180 haircut   | O. Palm to palm         |
| 16. Cutting position in which the palms of the hands are facing each other   | P. Layered haircut      |
| 17. Widest area of the head, usually starting at the temples and ending at the bottom of the crown                           | Q. Parietal ridge       |
| 18. Outer line of a hairstyle  | R. Interior             |
| 19. Rotates from a central point, also referred to a pie shaped sections   | S. long-layered haircut |