

Name: _____ Date: _____

Seniors Ch. 16 vocab focus part 3

- |  |                         |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1. Haircutting technique which the tips of the hair are cut at points into the ends of the hair.                               | A. Taper                |
| 2. Texturizing technique in which the comb and the razor are used on the surface of the hair.                                  | B. Section              |
| 3. Texturizing technique similar to razor over comb, done with small circular motions.   | C. Slicing              |
| 4. Points on the head that mark where the surface of the head changes or the behavior changes such as the jawline, ears ect... | D. Uniform layers       |
| 5. Also known as sher-over comb  | E. Traveling guideline  |
| 6. To divide the hair by parting into uniform working areas for control.   | F. Subsections          |
| 7. When hair contracts or lifts as it dries  | G. Slide cutting        |
| 8. Haircutting technique that removes weight by cutting the hair not completely closing the shears                             | H. Weight line          |
| 9. Method of cutting the hair by sliding the shears down the hair shaft  | I. Tension              |
| 10. Guideline that does not move   | J. Texturizing          |
| 11. Smaller sections within a section  | K. Razor motion         |
| 12. Men's cut with an even blend from very short to longer length  | L. Reference points     |
| 13. The amount of pressure you used when combing and holding a section   | M. Point cutting        |
| 14. Haircutting technique to remove bulk without shortening the length   | N. Scissors-over comb   |
| 15. Also known as a moveable guide   | O. Razor over comb      |
| 16. Hair is elevated to 90 degrees from the scalp and cut at the same length   | P. Shrinkage            |
| 17. Visual line in the haircut where the end of the hair hang together   | Q. Stationary guideline |