

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sentence Review

Across

3. The type of sentence that gives a command.
4. Type of sentence that has both an independent and dependent clause, joined with a relative pronoun or subordinating conjunction.
6. The type of clause that can stand on its own/be its own sentence.
8. A type of sentence that shows excitement and ends in an exclamation point.
9. A sentence with two thoughts, joined by a coordinating conjunction.

10. The noun in a sentence; the person, place, or thing that the sentence is about.

11. A sentence that makes a statement.

Down

1. A sentences that has a subject and a verb.
2. The type of clause that can NOT stand on its own; it needs more information to be a complete sentence.
5. The type of sentence that asks a question.
7. The part of a sentence that has a verb/includes an action; it tells us what is being done.