

Name: _____

Date: _____

Separation of Powers

Across

4. 15 Departments make up this part of the executive branch.

8. This clause gives Congress the ability to "make all laws which shall be necessary and proper" to carry out its powers.

9. The idea that judges cannot be fired or have their pay cut for making unpopular decisions is called this.

12. This part of Congress has 435 total representatives.

Down

1. The President is also called this.

2. This branch of government makes the laws

3. This branch of government interprets the laws

5. This person takes over as president if something happens to the current president.

6. The federal judiciary is made up of lower federal courts and this court.

7. The part of Congress has 2 representatives elected from every state.

10. This branch of government enforces the laws

11. This part of the constitution talks about the structure of government.