

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sexual behaviour

Across

- 2. occurs in 1 of every 2000 to 5000 live female births
- 3. an individual's collection of genes
- 4. also a result of under-developed ovaries leads to
- 6. a result of under-developed ovaries
- 11. curvature of the spine
- 14. an individual collection of chromosomes
- 15. produced by the body but can also be taken as medicine
- 16. carries genetic material

- 18. It is the most common sex chromosome disorder
- 19. it causes physical changes and affects boys and girls differently
- 20. the abnormal development of male sexual characteristics in a female

Down

- 1. an infant's external genital don't appear to be clearly male or female
- 5. found in both male and females
- 7. present in both male and females
- 8. where congenital adrenal hyperplasia (CAH) occurs as a result of reduced or absent activity of one of the five enzymes of cortisol synthesis

- 9. promotes secondary sexual characteristics i.e. increased muscle and bone mass
- 10. observable characteristics of an individual resulting from the interaction of its genotype with the environment
- 12. typically symbolising potency or fertility
- 13. the ratio of the lengths of different digits or fingers
- 17. an enlargement of an organ or tissue