

Shape and Space

Across

2. All aspects of development and learning are related to play, particularly the affective and the _____ domains

6. a line segment that joins two vertices

7. One of the easiest ways to see the shape of an object is to look at its _____

9. Learners in the Foundation Phase begin to represent _____ in drawings, models and maps. E.g: drawing a map to show the location of the school (Hint: Answer is 2 words)

11. You can measure the breadth, length and height of a _____

12. According to Piaget, there are three kinds of knowledge: Physical, Social and _____ knowledge

Down

1. The teacher is the _____ of learning, always giving directions on how to achieve the set goals

3. A _____ can be defined as a geometric figure such as a square, triangle, or rectangle

4. There are 3 types of play: free play, _____ play and extended focused play

5. a point where two or more straight lines meet (corner)

8. individual surfaces of a solid object

10. Two-dimensional shapes have length and _____.