

Short Stories & Narratives

Across

- 3. The dictionary meaning of a word.
- 6. The events that take place in a story.
- 12. The process where an author creates the personality of a character.
- 13. A character that does not change over time.
- 14. The perspective from which a story is told.
- 16. The message or moral of a story.

- 17. The emotions or feelings associated with a word.
- 18. When an author hints at a future event in the story.

Down

- 1. The "where" and "when" of a story.
- 2. A struggle between at least two opposing forces.
- 4. Pulling information and facts from a text to support an idea or thought.

- 5. A simple character with a single purpose.
- 7. A person, animal, or figure that participates in the action of a story.
- 8. A written or spoken story.
- 9. When a narrator or character remembers a past event.
- 10. A character that changes over time.
- 11. The way an author feels towards an audience, character, or subject.
- 15. A well-rounded, complex character.

Word Bank

|               |               |             |          |                  |
|---------------|---------------|-------------|----------|------------------|
| Flashback     | Narrative     | Round       | Static   | Setting          |
| Theme         | Character     | Dynamic     | Conflict | Characterization |
| Flat          | Plot          | Connotation | Tone     | Textual Evidence |
| Foreshadowing | Point of View | Denotation  |          |                  |