

Skin Diseases and Skin Disorders

Across

2. Viral infection commonly known as shingles, affects the spinal nerve
8. Pigmentation disorder mainly apparent in pregnancy where a butterfly mask appearance is visible on the face
9. Fungal infection known as athlete's foot, highly infectious
10. Pigmentation disorder known as 'liver spots'
11. An infestation that is caused by mites burrowing in the skin leaving small red blotches

12. Bacterial infection causing blisters which weep and leave a thick yellow crust

13. Viral infection, small blisters form around the mouth and can dry up and crust, highly contagious

14. Bacterial infection, skin has blocked glands caused by excess sebum and is shiny with pustules and papules with pitted scarring

Down

1. Viral infection, small warts found on the feet

3. Fungal infection which attaches to the keratinised structures of the skin, known as ring worm

4. Commonly known as 'freckles' mainly evident on fair skinned individuals

5. Bacterial infection of the pilo-sebaceous duct causing inflammation

6. Bacterial infection mainly affecting menopausal women. Flushed/reddened appearance on the face

7. A Congenital disorder where skin appears red and irritated, can be caused by clothing, cosmetics and products