

Slang Words

Across

2. When something or someone makes you laugh
 3. Saying someone is quick to get angry
 6. To say someone isn't taking responsibility for something they did or that they were blaming someone else
 9. To call someone angry
 11. Used to describe a person's baldness

12. When someone is falsely accused of something

13. Another way to say money

14. Used when someone is giving a long speech

15. When someone is an idiot, foolish, or stupid

Down

1. When a person or group is conspiring with another person or group

4. To call someone eager or describing one who is excited about something

5. To call someone scared or a coward

7. What you call someone who is old-fashioned, prim and proper

8. When something or someone is cool, fun, or a good time

10. To speak or address an older person, typically not nice