

Name: _____

Social

Across

2. conducted the famous Stanford Prison Experiment; illustrated the powerful impact of role-playing
6. a generalized (sometimes accurate but often overgeneralized) belief about a group of people
10. changing behavior in response to a demand from an authority figure
12. a perceived incompatibility of actions, goals, or ideas
13. generally, any group that one does not belong to
14. a relatively enduring evaluation of a person or thing; doesn't always match one's behavior
15. any physical or verbal behavior intended to hurt or destroy

16. the branch of psychology that studies persons and their relationships with others and with groups and with society as a whole
17. shared goals that override differences among people and require their cooperation

Down

1. unfair treatment of a person or group on the basis of prejudice
3. an unjustifiable (usually negative) attitude toward a group and its members
4. the theory that our social behavior is an exchange process, the aim of which is to maximize benefits and minimize costs
5. the tendency for any given bystander to be less likely to give aid if other bystanders are present

7. conducted experiments where "teachers" were made to shock "learners" under direction from an authority figure
8. the theory that we explain someone's behavior by crediting either the situation or the person's disposition; studied by Fritz Heider
9. "us"—people with whom one shares a common identity
11. a condition in which people receive from a relationship in proportion to what they give to it