

Name: _____

Date: _____

Social Psychology

Across

1. tendency to perform simple, well learned tasks better in the presence of others
6. the tendency for people who have first agreed to a small request to comply later with a larger request
9. positive or negative evaluation of persons, objects, or issues
11. the phenomenon that repeated exposure to certain stimuli (most often new ones) increases liking of them
15. the tendency to recall faces of one's own race more accurately than faces of other races
16. tendency of members of a decision-making group to be more focused on reaching a consensus than on critically examining the issues at hand
18. Unselfish regard for others
19. people you share an identity with; "us"
20. subfield in psychology that focuses on an individual's thoughts, feelings, and behaviors which can be influenced by our social interactions with others

22. the theory that prejudice offers an outlet for anger by providing someone to blame (often in minority)
23. the tendency of people to believe the world is just and that people therefore get what they deserve and deserve what they get
26. shared goals that overcome differences or conflicts among people; require cooperation
27. revealing intimate or personal aspects of oneself to others
28. unjustifiable negative behavior toward a group and its members
29. exception that helps bring about the outcome that is expected in an individual

Down

2. broad, overgeneralized beliefs about characteristics of a certain group of people
3. adjusting one's behavior or thinking to coincide with a group standard; Asch experiment
4. we feel happier around happy people than around depressed ones; we share up and down moods when surrounded by similar moods

5. an individual naturally mimics; unconsciously mimicking others' expressions, postures, and voice tones to help us feel what others are feeling
7. an expectation that people will help those dependent upon them
8. often a negative, unjustified attitude towards a group of people
10. people who are different from us; "them"
12. the tendency to favor one's own group
13. an expectation that people will help those who have helped them
14. loss of self-awareness when one is in a group
17. closeness, either in terms of relationships, distance, or time
21. tendency that causes an individual to use less effort when in a group rather than working alone
24. accepted role of behaviors in society or a given situation
25. physical or verbal behavior intended to hurt someone; includes hostile and instrumental