

Name: _____

Date: _____

Social Studies

Across

3. people who move from place to place, often with herds of animals
 7. economic system in which the government owns land, resources, and means of production and makes all economic decisions
 9. scientists that study population
 13. fertile desert areas watered by underground springs
 14. title of the former emperors of russia
 16. production of industrial goods such as military weapons, and machinery

17. broad, dry, treeless, plain in the high latitude

18. only grow enough food for yourself and family

19. huge, subarctic evergreen forests in northern Europe, Asia, and North America

20. products for personal use such as clothing such as clothing and house hold goods

Down

1. land that is set aside by a government to protect plants and wildlife

2. authoritarian political system in which the central government controls the economy and society

4. dry treeless grasslands, often found at the edges of deserts

5. large scale farming

6. the exact position of a place on the earths surface

8. preparing of food as products for sale

10. people having a common language, culture, and history

11. the study of the earth and its land, water, and animal life

12. production of consumer goods such as food products and house hold goods.

15. openings in the earths crust