

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Social Studies Vocabulary

Across

1. a law passed in 1787 to regulate the settlement of the Northwest Territory
3. the branch of federal and state government
5. a proposal by virginia delegates for a bicameral legislative branch
15. the region north of Ohio River, organized by Congress in 1787
17. addition to a document
18. an advocate or supporter of federalism
20. people who opposed ratification of the Constitution
21. one of three branches of the federal government
22. the first ten amendments to the US Constitution

Down

2. an act of vesting the legislative, executive, and judicial powers of government in seperate bodies
4. is the official way to confirm something
6. a series of 85 essays written by Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay in the late 1780s to persuade the voters of NY to adopt the Constitution
7. is the part of the United States government that creates laws
8. an agreement that large and small states reached during the Constitutional Convention
9. countering influences by which organization or system is regulated

10. is the collective name given to six statues passed by the congress in 1790, 1793, 1796, 1799, 1802, and 1834
11. the federal principle or system of government
12. series of four laws enacted in 1798 to reduce the political power of recent immigration
13. a proposal for the structure of the US government
14. an uprising led by a former militia officer, Daniel Shays, which broke put in western Massachusetts in 1786
16. a formal process in which an official is accused of unlawful activity
19. a constitutional right to reject a decision or proposal made by a law making body