

Sociological Perspectives

Across

- 4. Where people look at the inequalities of society and how fair it is
- 6. People who own nothing and are exploited by the 'Bourgeoisie'
- 9. The process of learning norms and values of a culture.
- 11. Founder of Marxism
- 13. Where everyone agrees on the same idea, topics and have a positive view
- 14. The belief that men and women should have equal rights and opportunities

15. The thought that how we spend our money defines our identity rather than how we earn our money

16. An action theory founded by George Hebert Mead

17. People who own a business a.k.a 'Bourgeoisie'

Down

1. The basic needs that need to be met in order to survive

2. A sociological perspective that say society doesn't affect humans completely they are free make their own decisions

3. An economic system in which a country's trade and industry are controlled by private owners

5. The perspective where they study individual and how they interact with others

7. A system of social organisation in which all property is owned by the government and everyone receives the same shares

8. The theory where society is a fight between rich and poor

10. A society which is dominated by males

12. Where everything is owned by the state/government and everything is equally shared