

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sociology-Population

Across

7. the number of children born in a given period of time

8. statistical study of population dynamics

9. when individuals join a population of which they were not previously a member

10. the action or fact of dying or being killed; the end of the life of a person or organism

11. overall percent change in a population in a year

12. average number of children a woman would have during her lifetime given current birth rates and assuming she survives through her child bearing years

13. when members of a population leave that group

15. projected number of years a person can expect to live based on his or her year of birth

16. the movement of people from one population group to another

Down

1. number of live births per 1000 people in the population in a given year

2. minimum number of children a woman would need to average in her lifetime to reproduce the population in the next generation

3. number of deaths in infants less than one year old per 1000 live births per year

4. all the inhabitants of a particular town, area, or country

5. theory that as a society moves from preindustrial to postindustrial, its population will shift from small to stable, with high birth and death rates, to large and stable with low birth and death rates

6. number of deaths per 1000 people in a population in a given year

14. the act or process of bearing or bringing forth offspring