

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sociology 101 midterm

Across

10. When study subjects behave in a certain manner due to their awareness of being observed by a researcher

11. The process wherein people come to understand societal norms and expectations, to accept society's beliefs, and to be aware of societal values

12. A belief that modern society should be built around logic and efficiency rather than morality or tradition

Down

1. Observing a complete social setting and all that it entails

2. The process by which new members of a total institution lose aspects of their old identity and are given new ones

3. How a subjective reality can drive events to develop in accordance with that reality, despite being originally unsupported by objective reality

4. The theory that an organization is ruled by a few elites rather than through collaboration

5. An individual's isolation from his society, his work, and his sense of self

6. A practice of remaining impartial, without bias or judgment during the course of a study and in publishing results

7. A collection of people who exist in the same place at the same time, but who don't interact or share a sense of identity

8. The process by which old behaviors are removed and new behaviors are learned in their place

9. Formal organizations characterized by a hierarchy of authority, a clear division of labor, explicit rules, and impersonality.

Word Bank

Rationalization
Thomas theorem
Value Neutrality
Alienation

Bureaucracies
Hawthorne Effect
Socialization
Resocialization

Iron Rule of Oligarchy
Ethnography
Degradation ceremony
Aggregate