

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sociology Cafe Crossword

Across

2. To study how power froms the basis of the relationships between different groups and creates conflict

7. Expectations of how people should behave in society

9. Social scientists study the interactions among people living together in a society; their actions, beliefs, behaviour, etc

10. Considered the founding father of Functionalism

11. Shared ideas and standards that are considered acceptable and binding

12. Expected position of a person at a particular social standpoint

Down

1. Examination of a physical environment and social structures which determine one's behavior

3. Approach in sociology that analyses social systems on a large scale

4. Study of small groups and individuals within a society

5. Sociologist who's theories included structures of society

6. Application of scientific methods to obtain quantifiable data in order to understand society

8. Perspective where society is viewed as patriarchal