

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sociology Final 2021

Across

2. the ratio of deaths to the population of a particular area or during a particular period of time.

6. The statistical study of human populations especially with reference to size and density, distribution, and vital statistics.

7. the theory of exponential population and arithmetic food supply growth

8. the movement of people from one place to another with intentions of settling.

9. the ability to produce an abundance of offspring or new growth.

10. The net change in a population after adding births, subtracting deaths, and either adding or subtracting net migration

Down

1. the average period that a person may expect to live.

3. the number of live births per thousand of population per year.

4. the quality of being able to produce children.

5. The whole number of people or inhabitants in a country or region.