

Sociology - Social Policy

Across

2. Feminists argue that social policies assume the ideal family is what?
6. Social policies are usually based on what?
8. Marxism believes the state and its policies supports what?
9. Which theorist argues the welfare state supports families?
10. New Labour emphasise how the family show take responsibility for their what?

Down

1. Which macro theory believes the state helps families perform their functions more effectively?
3. Who recognises that women now go to work as well as men?
4. Which theory is concerned with welfare dependency and the rise of the underclass?
5. The New Right are critical of illegitimate children and what?
7. What type of benefits assume that husbands are the main wage earners?