

Soil Origin and Development Vocab

Across

- 3. soils whose parent materials were carried and deposited in moving freshwater to form sediments
- 7. the direction a slope is facing is called slope
- 8. _____ is the surface mineral layer where organic matter accumulates
- 9. the original source of most soil

- 11. this type of rock is created when loose materials is deposited by wind or water and then slowly cemented by chemicals or pressure
- 12. This type of rock is created by the cooling and solidification of molten materials from deep in the earth
- 13. the "zone of accumulation" is also known as _____

Down

- 1. layers of the soil are known as soil _____

- 2. this type of rock is created by the introduction of extreme heat or pressure
- 4. the study of soil formation
- 5. the hard subsoil layer cemented by lime is called _____
- 6. this process is when water moving down through the soil moves dissolved materials with it
- 10. this is the natural process that breaks down rock into parent material