

Name: _____

Date: _____

Special Senses

Across

6. A healthcare provider who designs, fits, and dispenses lenses for vision.
7. The process where the eyes make adjustments for seeing objects at various distances.
8. A physician who specializes in the measurement of hearing function and rehab of hearing impairment.
10. A test used to measure a patient's distance acuity.
11. An instrument used to visually examine the external ear canal and tympanic membrane.
12. Measurement of the intraocular pressure of the eye.

13. The three small bones located within the middle ear.

14. What does the phrase 20/20 vision mean?

16. A procedure to determine a patient's refractive error.

17. An agent that induces dilation of the pupil.

18. The use of air pressure in the ear canal to test for disorders of the middle ear.

20. A diagnostic procedure in which a narrow beam of light is focused to examine the cornea, iris, and lens of the eye by an ophthalmologist.

Down

1. An inflammation of the lacrimal gland caused by a microorganism.
2. A sense of whirling, dizziness and loss of balance; often with N&V.
3. The simultaneous inward movement of the eyes toward each other.
4. The ringing, buzzing or roaring sound in one or both ears.
5. An abnormal area of diminished vision surrounded by an area of normal vision.
9. Bleeding from the ear.
15. The flow of pus from the ear.
19. Pain in the ear.