

Name: _____

Date: _____

Speech Vocabulary

Across

- 2. The rising and falling of pitch
- 5. A person's pronunciation of words, choice of words, and manner in which the person expresses himself or herself
- 10. A pronunciation of words from different languages blended together to form a distinct language for a group of people
- 11. The placement and delivery of voice elements used effectively in communicating to an audience
- 14. Muscular membranes in the larynx that produce sound
- 16. The amount of force you use in inhaling and exhaling

- 17. The voice element that makes one person sound different from everyone else
- 18. How we sit and stand
- 19. Freedom from all bodily tensions
- 20. The effective control of all voice elements and body movements

- 4. The necessary process of inhaling and exhaling air to live
- 6. The musical tone of a voice
- 7. The muscle located between the abdomen and the rib cage
- 8. The shaping and molding of sounds into syllables

Down

- 1. An instrument that can be used to record voice vibrations and show voice patterns
- 3. The way sounds or syllables that represent a word are said and stressed according to the notation in the dictionary

- 9. The process of varying inflections in the voice
- 12. The speed at which someone speaks
- 13. The manner in which people speak and the way words are pronounced in different parts of the world
- 15. How softly or loudly a person speaks

Word Bank

Projection	Diction	Poise	Pronunciation	Diaphragm
Volume	Posture	Breathing	Rate	Articulation
Breath control	Quality	Pitch	Flexibility	Vocal folds
Oscilloscope	Accent	Dialect	Relaxation	Inflection