

Name: _____

Date: _____

Spelling Test - Week 2

Across

5. make (something) on a large scale using machinery.

6. the greater number

7. the fact or state of being independent

12. the health, happiness, and fortunes of a person or group.

13. a system of winds rotating inwards to an area of low barometric pressure, with an anticlockwise (northern hemisphere) or clockwise (southern hemisphere) circulation; a depression.

16. the legislative branch of the government of Australia.

18. relating to or supporting democracy or its principles.

21. having or expressing devotion to and vigorous support for one's country.

22. in, relating to, or characteristic of the countryside rather than the town

23. an area of land under the jurisdiction of a ruler or state

24. supreme power is held by the people and their elected representatives, and which has an elected or nominated president rather than a monarch

25. the state of being equal, especially in status, rights, or opportunities.

28. the group of people with the authority to govern a country or state

29. the supply of water to land or crops to help growth

30. a person who applies for a job or is nominated for election.

Down

1. typical of a class, group, or body of opinion

2. the upper house of the bicameral Parliament of Australia, the lower house being the House of Representatives

3. a vote by the electorate on a single political question

4. a group of people of one nationality or race living in a foreign place

8. extremely poor and lacking the means to provide for oneself.

9. declare (someone) to be guilty of a criminal offence by the verdict of a jury or the decision of a judge in a court of law.

10. relating to or believing in a religion.

11. prevention of wasteful use of a resource

14. the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people

15. all the inhabitants of a particular place

17. the art or practice of designing and constructing buildings

19. a formal and organized choice by vote of a person

20. successful in material terms; flourishing financially

26. the status of belonging to a particular nation

27. the action of defending from or resisting attack