

Spelling & Vocabulary

Across

- 4. Some criminals _____ and deny the truth.
- 8. Even though things are difficult, you should be _____ until the end.
- 11. Some websites aren't very good and are a _____.
- 15. My sister's _____ to her company was on Monday.
- 16. She was _____ and lied a lot.
- 17. Writings that don't have details and are _____ aren't going to do very well.
- 18. If you _____ things you are examining them very carefully.

- 19. In school sometimes they have a speech and _____ teams.
- 20. A snotty girl acts _____ and thinks she is better than everybody else.

Down

- 1. if you're having an _____ you should try and end it before it evolves into somethings bigger.
- 2. If you don't know basic math skills you're not _____.
- 3. You should only use _____ sources when researching.
- 5. In your writing a _____ is the ending part of your writing.

- 6. Don't act _____ when you're guilty, tell the truth.
- 7. In class she had a _____ and thought she was correct about the past royals, but she was incorrect.
- 9. A _____ is a statement that should be able to be argued about.
- 10. Good friends are people who are loyal and _____.
- 12. Going back to _____ your writing is a smart decision.
- 13. Friends can be a good or bad _____ on you.
- 14. When being a judge in a courtroom, you cannot be _____.

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------------|---------------|---------------|-------------|-----------|
| questionable | revise | argument | peruse | bias |
| debate | misleading | misconception | valid | competent |
| conclusion | vague | contradict | affiliation | influence |
| hoax | condescending | dependable | persistent | thesis |