

Spinal Cord Crossword

Across

- 4. The tail end of the spinal cord is not "hanging loose." It is actually anchored via the _____, which connects to the coccyx bone.
- 5. The chest level region of the spine that is located between the cervical and lumbar vertebrae
- 9. How many plexus groups branch off the spinal cord?
- 11. The spinal cord passes through the _____
- 14. Which of the following transmits information from the spinal cord to the extremities of the body?
- 16. What is the main symptom of spinal cord injuries?
- 18. The flexible bone column extending from the base of the skull to the tailbone

19. The junction or articulation of two or more bones that permits varying degrees of motion between the bones.

20. Compression of the spinal cord and/or nerve roots resulting in inflammation, pain and neurological symptoms.

Down

1. The bony channel that is formed by the intervertebral foramen of the vertebrae and in which contains the spinal cord and nerve roots.

2. Complete paralysis of all 4 extremities and trunk is known as

3. What is the name of the structures that hold the spinal cord in position within the vertebral foramen?

6. The medical specialty involved in the preservation and restoration of function of the musculoskeletal system

7. The lower part of the spine between the thoracic region and the sacrum. The lumbar spine consists of five vertebrae.

8. One of the 33 bones of the spinal column

10. The surgical treatment of disorders of the brain, spinal cord, and peripheral nerves.

12. Which of the following spinal cord regions are NOT involved with a plexus formation?

13. The region of the spine below the sacrum. It is also known as the tailbone

15. A part of the spine that is also part of the pelvis.

17. The neck region of the spine containing the first seven vertebrae