Spreadsheet Functions-SD20

Across

4. The sign used to start off a function

6. Makes it so that a cell has a down arrow with an assortment of options to put in a cell.

7. Used to compare cell values to an array of cells and return a value that matches the location of the value in the array; Used when there are more than two columns in the array (Lookup table)

11. Used to find the number of cells in a range that are not empty.

13. Which function is used to compare cell values to an array of cells and return a value that matches the location of the value in the array?

14. What function is used to calculate a period of time and returns the current date?

15. Which is used to calculate the difference in days between two dates with the days in months averaged to 30?

18. A cell that is currently in use is considered to be...

20. A border put around a total that has one border on top and two on the bottom.

Down

1. What is this symbol "/" used for in a spreadsheet function?

2. What is this sign (*) used for in a function?

3. A border that covers all sides of a cell

5. Used to compare cell values to an array when there are more than two columns in the array

8. What is this ":" used to show in a function?

9. Calculates a period of time

10. Returns to the current date

12. Results are returned if the data in the equation meets conditions set by the formula

16. Used to find the sum of a cell range

17. The title at the top of your spreadsheet that shows your name, date and title

19. Counts the number of cells in a range that contain numbers.