

Spring Break Geography Crossword

Across

2. This rate is over 99% in many developed countries, but it is below 70% in some developing countries.

5. This type of energy can only be harvested near breaks in the Earth's crust.

7. This type of industry was very common before the Industrial Revolution.

11. Kraal villages in Kenya are this type of settlement.

13. Cycles for this type of market in Korea occur twice every lunar month in 15 day cycles.

16. This movement in England is known for destroying village life.

18. The pollution of the Aral Sea is an example of this source.

19. Jobs in this sector include banking, law, and education.

21. The only two _____ states in the world are South Africa and Italy.

22. Members of this economic international organization include Kuwait, Iraq, Qatar, Algeria, and Saudi Arabia.

23. This food category accounts for nearly 40% of all dietary energy consumed worldwide.

24. 99% of people suffering from this food condition live in developing countries.

25. The steam engine and other new technologies were the main catalysts of this.

Down

1. This concept is readily found in nation-states.

3. Mexico City is an example of this type of city.

4. This term originally came from the taxes put on Mexico when it was a Spanish colony.

6. This crop was independently domesticated in Sub-Saharan Africa and in East Asia.

8. Two-thirds of all sites that produce this type of energy are in developing countries.

9. Anguilla, the Cayman Islands, Montserrat, and the British Virgin Islands are _____ of the UK.

10. This practice was started by a professor in Bangladesh.

12. This type of settlement was common in colonial America because it provided defense against Native Americans.

14. Less complex products, such as clothing, are more involved in this practice than more advanced ones.

15. Hexagons are used to model the areas this theory's model.

17. The oldest settlements in the Mediterranean were organized into _____.

20. Mining and smelting are examples of this type of industry.