

Name: _____

Date: _____

Stages of Death

- |   |               |
|---|---------------|
| 1. This occurs when the person can not accept the truth   | A. anger      |
| 2. they blame themselves, their loved ones, or health care personnel for their illness                                  | B. acceptance |
| 3. The will to live is strong, and they fight to achieve goals, they want to see their children graduate or get married | C. denial     |
| 4. they experience great sadness, regrets, despair and become withdrawn   | D. bargaining |
| 5. They may complete unfinished business, and help those around them deal with the oncoming death                       | E. depression |
| 6. No, not me!  | F. depression |
| 7. They make promises to god  | G. anger      |
| 8. This may happen when a patient realizes that death will come soon  | H. denial     |
| 9. Why me?  | I. bargaining |
| 10. Patients will separate themselves from the world and other people   | J. acceptance |