

Name: _____

Standard First Aid

Across

3. In order to open the _____ you must perform a head-tilt chin-lift on your casualty

7. An obstructed airway in which the casualty is still able to take in some air, is conscious, can still cough, and wheeze is considered _____.

8. 30:2 is the proper ratio for chest compressions to _____ during CPR

10. Someone who is experiencing anaphylaxis may carry a _____.

11. The acronym used for a suspected stroke casualty is _____.

13. An inhaler is a type of _____.

Down

1. Appears as if the casualty is 'over-breathing'

2. When asking a casualty their relevant history, you can use the acronym _____.

4. The acronym RICE stands for Rest, _____, Cold and Elevate

5. Someone who is having a _____ may experience loss of consciousness, extreme muscle contractions, and loss of bowel or bladder control.

6. You always need to ask for _____ before beginning first aid

9. You must always treat for _____.

12. Breathing disorder generally triggered by allergies, emotional distress, physical activity and extreme temperatures