

Name: _____

Date: _____

Statistics and Data

Across

- 3. First Hand Data
- 5. Data for two variables
- 7. Survey
- 9. Continuous Data can take any value within a range
- 11. Average
- 17. In no particular order
- 19. Types of data which may be divided into groups
- 20. Trustworthy
- 21. Recording of scores
- 22. One type of data
- 23. Data that can only take certain values

Down

- 1. The collection, organization, analysis, interpretation, and presentation of data
- 2. Middle Value
- 4. A representation of data in a table
- 6. Data that has been collected in the pas through primary sources.
- 8. Most occuring
- 10. Spread of your data from the lowest to the highest value

- 12. A circular statistical graphic

- 13. Spread of values in each group

- 14. A simple plot that displays data values as dots above a number

- 15. Having influence over the outcome

- 16. The number of occurrences of a repeating event

- 18. Extreme values that are quite different from the other data values.