

Name: _____

Date: _____

SteelCon

Across

3. 52.3.165.152
 6. When you put your SPN tickets on the grill
 10. Open-source payload with a client-side Ruby API
 11. 17/TCP
 12. Fyodor's version of Medusa
 14. A swiss army knife for infrastructure pentesting
 15. WinAPI call used to hide a window

16. Vulnerability caused when Java gets sloppy with your Objects

Down

1. Quickly map relationships within Active Directory
 2. At Derbycon 2016, the creator of this Microsoft developed language thanked hackers for using it
 4. SecureWorks SasS/based early/warning system

5. I was pretty much the government's poster boy for what I had done.

7. Advanced Endpoint Threat Detection
 8. The largest known data breach of credit card information in history
 9. Ransomware with a little help from the NSA
 13. The DLL affected by MS08-067