

Name: _____

Date: _____

Stop the Pressure

Across

- 4. Term given to speciality nurses in the NHS who deal with skin and pressure damage
- 6. Areas of the body pressure ulcers are most commonly found
- 7. First line of treatment to prevent moisture associated skin damage
- 10. Common baking ingredient often used to treat pressure ulcers

- 11. One of the most important factors to consider in high risk patients

- 12. The amount of Degrees patients ideally need tilted at for optimum elevation

Down

- 1. Patients who are unable to do this are at risk of pressure damage

- 2. Month which National Stop the Pressure Day occurs

- 3. Abbreviation for discoloured non blanchable skin

- 5. The superhero played by Christopher Reeves; who suffered from chronic pressure ulcers

- 8. New grading system for Pressure Ulcers

- 9. When a pressure ulcer is not a pressure ulcer