

Study Guide Test 2

Across

2. This term was coined in 1845 by journalist John L. O'Sullivan.

7. This Plan was drafted by James Madison and was presented at the opening of the constitutional convention.

9. A law enacted in Pennsylvania in 1780, granting freedom to infants born on March 1, 1780 when they reach age twenty-eight.

18. This conflict (1791-1804) involved diverse participants and armies from three European countries.

20. The leaders of this group in the 1790s supported Britain in foreign policy and commercial interests at home.

21. This movement was founded by Joseph Smith in 1830 and continued by Brigham Young.

22. The federal government responded to this rebellion (1794) with a military presence that caused dissidents to disperse before blood was shed.

23. This plan proposed enhanced congressional powers, including the right to tax, regulate trade, and use force on unruly state governments.

Down

1. The leaders of this group in the 1790s supported the revolutionaries in France and worried about monarchical tendencies of the other group.

3. This was used as a secret means of escape.

4. The President insisted that this Act (1830) was for the benefit of these people, but it ended in disaster.

5. This treaty was signed in 1795 and brought only temporary peace to Ohio

6. This mass movement of people into the territory accelerated the push for statehood.

8. This acknowledged the existence of slavery in the United States.

10. This rebellion (1786-1787) caused the country to worry about the confederation's ability to handle civil disorder.

11. This was a grueling 1,200-mile march caused the deaths of a quarter of the people.

12. Some 2,500 men were taken by force into service, a grievance that helped propel the United States to declare war on Britain.

13. This was used in the 1830s by migrants many of which died from disease and accidents.

14. This incident in 1797 was caused by American negotiators in France and their refusal to pay a substantial bribes.

15. Signed in 1795, this treaty secured limited trading rights in the West Indies, but did not secure a timely removal of British forces from western forts.

16. A Land Act established in 1787, guaranteed that western lands with white population would not become colonial dependence.

17. The Articles of Confederation

19. Seven states ratified the Constitution on the condition that guarantees of individual liberties and limitations to federal power be swiftly incorporated.