

Study Words for the Quiz

Across

3. A weakness or limitation of character, resulting in a fall of the tragic hero
4. An event causing great suffering, destruction, and distress.
8. An author's distinctive literary style, basic vision and general attitude toward the world.
10. A turn or a sudden change in thought, direction, or emotion.
12. A theme that applies to any time period and any group of people.

13. A kind of fantasy which tends to deal chiefly with events that take place in the future or on other planets.

14. The arrangement of words to form phrases, clauses and sentences.

15. The time and place that the action occurs.

16. The way an author chooses words, arranges them in some type of way.

Down

1. An exaggerated narrative about a folk hero.

2. A style of writing that portrays the inner working of a character's mind.

5. The poised anticipation of the reader or audience as to the outcome of the events.

6. Direct comparison of one thing with another, announced by the words "like" or "as".

7. An object, action, character or scene, that signifies something.

9. The writer's or speaker's implied attitude toward the subject.

11. The main idea of a literary work.